Patron Privacy & Risk - Worst Cases and Preparations

Surveys show that libraries are among the most trusted of all social institutions...trusted above all other government agencies. Our professional ethics insist that we protect the information seeking of our patrons. Are we living up to our ethics in our everyday actions and services? What are the risks inherent in our current systems and services? "How can libraries proactively help all immigrants, regardless of status? Join Jason Griffey for an examination of these risks and suggestions on how libraries can be ready to react to threats.

Jason will be joining via Skype.

Following Jason's talk, Cheryl Keshner from Empire Justice Center and Martha Maffei from SEPA Mujer will highlight the concerns of our immigrant community and answer questions.

ABOUT OUR SPEAKER

Jason Griffey is the founder and principal at Evenly Distributed (<http://evenlydistributed.net>), a technology consulting and creation firm for libraries, museums, education, and other non-profits. Jason is an Affiliate Fellow at the Berkman Klein Center for Internet & Society at Harvard University, where he studies hyperlocal micronetworks such as his LibraryBox Project and works on technologies that provide open and robust access to information for the future, such as blockchain and other decentralization technologies.
