

Constitution of RASD

The Reference and Adult Services Division of The Suffolk County Library Association

ARTICLE I - NAME

- Section 1. This organization shall be known as the Reference and Adult Services Division (RASD) of the Suffolk County Library Association, and may be referred to as RASD.

ARTICLE II - OBJECT

- Section 1. To unite in one division all those who are interested in any phase of reference and adult library services.
- Section 2. To give those having responsibility for the above services an opportunity to exchange information, develop techniques and improve their professional endeavors.
- Section 3. To have representation on the Executive Board of the Suffolk County Library Association.

ARTICLE III - MEMBERSHIP

- Section 1. Membership in the Reference and Adult Services Division shall be open to any person engaged in or interested in adult library services upon payment of annual dues to the Suffolk County Library Association.

ARTICLE IV - OFFICERS

- Section 1. The officers of this Division shall be:
- President
 - Vice President-President Elect
 - Secretary
 - Treasurer

all of whom shall be members in good standing of the Suffolk County Library Association.

- Section 2. If appointed, the Nomination Chair will present a slate of candidates to the RASD Executive Board in accordance with the SCLA Election Timeline. If appointed, the Nomination Chair will forward the approved slate of candidates to the SCLA Nominating Chair in accordance with the SCLA Election Timeline. If no appointment is made for the Nomination Chair then the RASD Vice President will forward the approved slate of candidates to the SCLA Nomination Chair in accordance with the SCLA Election Timeline.

- Section 3. Nominations for all officer positions of RASD may also be made by petition signed by five members in good standing, filed with the SCLA Chairperson of the Nominating Committee in accordance with the SCLA Election Timeline.
- Section 4. Names of the Candidates for office will be sent to the entire membership by SCLA in the form of an electronic ballot. Votes will be cast via an electronic ballot in accordance with the SCLA Election Timeline.
- Section 5. Election shall be by majority vote. In the event of a tie vote for any RASD office, the voting members of the current RASD Executive Board shall cast written ballots for one of the two candidates for that office.
- Section 6. New officers will be presented at the Annual Meeting to take office beginning January 1.
- Section 7. All officers shall be elected for a period of one year, except Vice President-President Elect who shall be elected for a period of two (2) years.
- Section 8. Vacancies in office [or in appointed positions] may be filled on an interim basis until the next general election by the appointment of a member in good standing of the Division. The Executive Board shall select the appointee by a simple majority.
- Section 9. Any elected member of the RASD Executive Board who shall absent themselves from three consecutive RASD Board meetings without excuse accepted as satisfactory by the RASD Board may be removed from office by a majority vote of the RASD Executive Board. The President shall so inform that member. Non-elected members shall be replaced by appointment of the President. Elective members shall be replaced by appointment of the RASD Executive Board.

ARTICLE V - FINANCING

- Section 1. The Suffolk County Library Association includes in its budget an amount for the operation of the Reference and Adult Services Division.
- Section 2. The Reference and Adult Services Division may make special requests for funds to the Suffolk County Library Association Board of Directors during the year if it requires additional funds above its budgeted amount.
