Roni Rauch introduced the current SSD Executive Board and encouraged all attendees to join the Support Staff Division of SCLA and take part in the many interesting and informative programs offered. The Annual Membership Meeting and Annual Safety Conference was attended by over 50 members of the General Membership.

Stuart Cameron, Chief of the Suffolk County Police Department was our Keynote Speaker. Chief Cameron presented an informative program on the tactics and programs used to protect our schools regarding active shooter events. Chief Cameron critiqued past incidences of active shooters with video and audio explaining what the SCPD learned from these events and how they incorporated their findings to improve SCPD's response and techniques to handle these situations.

Valerie Lewis of the Suffolk County Library System presented a program entitled The Libraries Roles in Preparedness and Community Resiliency explaining the role of the public library in the safety of its community. The Library is an important source of crucial safety information and participates in community efforts during times of crisis.

Jessica Price; Brentwood School District School Counselor provided an informative interactive program of sharing feelings and stories of empathy.

Gene and Dan Perceval presented an audience participation program entitled Mind-Body-Spirit Martial Arts Self Defense.

Meeting adjourned at 4:00 pm.

Minutes respectfully submitted by Aileen Clark; Secretary
